Say YES! to Auto Call Dialing

Calling is one of the ways you keep a check if your lead is still warm. Being a startup or a small business you always have less time to call and more things to do. On top of that, calling each prospect manually wastes time and effort if the call goes unanswered.

Why did we make Calley?

Before we created Calley, we were looking for a Sales Dialer to call our prospects. Our challenge was that solutions were only available via browser or only via mobile. Browser Only Solutions required SIP calls, charging per minute over a regular subscription. Alternatively, Mobile Only Solutions were too challenging to work with since they expected a call campaign to be created on a smartphone.

Additionally, we wanted a solution with NO HIDDEN CHARGES.

As we looked for a solution, we found there is a need for an Auto Dialer with a cloud control panel and a mobile app.

Thus, Calley was born as a cloud-based sales autodialer.
